Seventh Sunday of Easter

Theme: Love

As We Gather

In the United States Mother's Day was first suggested in 1872 by Julia Ward Howe (who wrote the words to the Battle Hymn of the Republic) as a day dedicated to peace. Ms. Howe would hold organized Mother's Day meetings in Boston every year. In 1907 Ana Jarvis, from Philadelphia, began a campaign to establish a national Mother's Day on the second anniversary of her mother's death, the 2nd Sunday of May. By the next year Mother's Day was also celebrated in Philadelphia. Ms. Jarvis and her supporters began to write to ministers, businessmen and politicians in their quest to establish a national Mother's Day. It was successful in 1911 as Mother's Day was celebrated in almost every state. President Woodrow Wilson, in 1914, made the official announcement proclaiming Mother's Day as a national holiday that was to be held each year on the 2nd Sunday of May.

Prayer Before Worship

Heavenly Father, You have been pleased to give all human beings the joy of having a mother who works with You to give them life and bring them to human adulthood. You have given followers of Your Son the added joy of a Christian mother, who works with You to give supernatural life to a child and to bring up that child to Christian adulthood. Over the centuries there have been countless such mothers, heroic, courageous, loving, dedicated, and unconquerable. They have given us the Christian Ages and Christian Saints and in the final analysis assisted greatly in the Christian faith. Most of these mothers are unsung in the eyes of the world; they must be content with little things: a smile, a thank you, and a token of remembrance. In Your eyes, however, they are of inestimable worth. Your Word in the Bible uses a mother's love to describe Your overwhelming love for Your people, and Jesus uses the image of a mother bird to indicate His love for His people. Dear Lord, let me honor my mother if she is living and remember her with thankful prayer if she now dwells in the presence of the saints in Heaven. Pour down Your grace on all mothers on this day dedicated to them. Amen.

Mystery Prelude

Opening Hymn 36

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, in whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love and still is ours today.
2. Oh, may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us
And keep us in His grace and guide us when perplexed
And free us from all ills in this world and the next!

Order of Service

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Easter Proclamation

P: Christ is Risen! Hallelujah!

C: He is Risen Indeed! Hallelujah!

P: Make haste, O God, to deliver me.

C: Make haste to help me, O Lord.

P: The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.

C: A broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Glory be to the Father and to the + Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Anthem

"M-O-T-H-E-R" - Howard Johnson

Redeemer Brass

M is for the million things she gave me.

O means only that she's growing old.

T is for the tears she shed to save me.

H is for her heart of purest gold.

E is for her eyes, with love-light shining.

R means right and right she'll always be.

Put them all together they spell Mother, a word that means the world to me.

Children's Message

Old Testament Reading

Exodus 2:1-10

(The Birth of Moses)

Now a man of the tribe of Levi married a Levite woman, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months. But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile. His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him. Then Pharaoh's daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the riverbank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her female slave to get it. She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said. Then his sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?" "Yes, go," she answered. So the girl went and got the baby's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the baby and nursed him. When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, "I drew him out of the water."

Epistle Reading

Hebrews 11:23-29

(By Faith)

By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. By faith he kept the Passover and the application of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel. By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.

Response: Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Praise God in All His Glory – Peri

Gospel Announcement

Response: Glory be to Thee, O Lord!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 19:13-15

(Let the little children come to me)

Then people brought little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked them. Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." When he had placed his hands on them, he went on from there.

Response: Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Confession of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Sermon Hymn

For the Beauty of the Earth

1. For the beauty of the earth, for the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies;
Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.
2. For the wonder of this hour of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light;
Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.
3. For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child;
Friends on earth and friends above; for all gentle thoughts and mild;
Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. P: The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

C: Amen

1. You, who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, who abide in His shadow for life
Say to the Lord, "My Refuge, my Rock in whom I trust."

Refrain:

*And He will raise you up on eagle's wings; bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of His hand.*

2. Snare of the fowler will never capture you and famine will bring you no fear
Under His wings your Refuge, His faithfulness, your shield. Refrain
3. You need not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day;
Though thousands fall about you, near you, it shall not come. Refrain

Teaser and Trivia for Children's Ministry

We walked into Sunday School in our pretty dresses, gloves, and bow ties every Sunday. Clutched in our hands was our offering envelope and pennies. There was a little white plastic church on the altar where we deposited our pennies for missions. We sang, "Hear the pennies dropping, listen as they fall. Everyone for Jesus, He will get them all." Ask Karen Pridmore to sing it for you!

REDEEMER'S 100TH ANNIVERSARY UPDATE

As you may know, Redeemer will soon reach a major milestone. We have been blessed by God in countless ways, and have been serving Him as a congregation for nearly an entire century. There are many celebratory things in the works, beginning with our kickoff Sunday on December 1st of this year. In 2025 you can look forward to special meals and coffee hours, guest speakers, community events, charity focused outreach, Westmaple anniversary recognition, and a host of other fun and legacy building events. There is one committee that has already been putting in months of work for this celebration. Our historical committee is deep into the process of organizing 100 years of information to be presented throughout the anniversary year. They have even been giving some informative and entertaining "teasers" in the bulletin and Lamp. This work will not only benefit the anniversary celebration, but will live on in our archives for generations to come. The committee is headed by Debi Hollis, and includes longtime members: Beth Lanthier, Filippa Mammel, Stacey Rolf and Ginny Schalm. Also, due to popular demand, there will be a 100th anniversary edition of a church pictorial directory. Lynn Duerr has graciously volunteered to head this up. There will be times, dates and more information on this communicated soon. More exciting details and volunteer opportunities will be coming in the next several months.
