“He is Risen!”

As We Gather
“Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?” The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 15:55-57 (NIV)

Prelude Rick Helderop, organist

(During the Opening Hymn the Easter Fire is brought into the Sanctuary)

Opening Hymn Jesus Christ is Risen Today

1. Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!
2. Hymns of praise, then, let us sing, Alleluia!
Unto Christ, our heavenly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!
3. But the pains which He endured, Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured. Alleluia!
Now above the sky He’s King, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Children’s Message

Epistle Reading Isaiah 53:1-9, 11
(The suffering servant who is Christ)

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces he was despised, and we held him in low esteem. Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed. We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away. Yet who of his generation protested? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was punished. He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, though he had done no violence, nor was any deceit in his mouth. After he has suffered, he will see the light of life and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities.

Gospel Announcement

Response: Glory be to Thee, O Lord!

Gospel Reading John 20:1-18
(The Empty Tomb)

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!” So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) Then the disciples went back to where they were staying. Now Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus’ body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. They asked her, “Woman, why are you crying?” “They have taken my Lord away,” she said, “and I don’t know where they have put him.” At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. He asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?” Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.” Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means “Teacher”). Jesus said, “Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’ ” Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Response: Praise be to Thee, O Christ!

Sermon Hymn 200 I Know That My Redeemer Lives - Courtney
Chancel Choir; Brian Buckmaster, Timpani; Redeemer Brass
Sung along with Redeemer’s congregation

The choir and instruments will open this hymn with an extended introduction before the congregation is invited to sing.

1. I know that my Redeemer lives; What comfort this sweet sentence gives!
He lives, He lives, who once was dead; He lives, my ever-living Head.
2. He lives triumphant from the grave, He lives eternally to save,
He lives all glorious in the sky, He lives exalted there on high.
3. He lives, all glory to His name! He lives, my Jesus, still the same.
Oh, the sweet joy this sentence gives, I know that my Redeemer lives!

Sermon John 20:1-18
“Not One Iota”
Rev. Randall J. Schlak

Offertory
Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.
Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation; and uphold me with Thy free spirit.
Amen.

Gathering of Offerings
At this time, please take a moment to record your attendance here with us today. There are two simple ways to do this:
1. Scan the QR code on the front page of the announcements and fill out the online attendance form.
2. Use the worship card found in your pew. You may drop it in the offering plate or simply leave it in your pew after you fill it out.
This is also an opportune time for personal prayer and meditation. For help, see the prayers beginning on page 102 of the pew hymnal and the Psalms beginning on page 123.

Amen.

Postlude
Rick Helderop, organist

The Paschal Candle
The Paschal Candle is a symbol of our Lord’s resurrection and His visible presence here on earth during the 40 days following His resurrection. By the cross are inscribed A and the Ω, the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. These symbolize that Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. The numerals of the current year are inscribed to signify that the risen Christ shall be a “pillar of fire” also in this year to lead us to the heavenly promised land. In the center and in the four corners of the cross, wax nails are affixed to symbolize the five wounds of Christ. It is customary to light the Paschal candle at baptisms because in baptism we die with Christ and rise to new life. It is also lit at funerals to remind us that in death, we were cleansed in the waters of baptism and like Christ, we, too, shall rise unto eternal life.

The Sanctuary Paschal Candle is given by Tim and Lynn Duerr in loving memory of Caroline Duerr, mother of Tim.

The Chapel Paschal Candle is given by Sue Soltess with much gratitude to God for the 100th anniversary of Redeemer and the birth of Jess 100 years ago in October.

The Easter Fire was given by Rick Berndt
in loving memory of his dear wife Calleen Berndt.

The Easter Floral Cross was given by Whitfield, Jones and Morris Families in loving memory of Alan James Whitfield, and Carol and Lloyd Jones. Delight in the presence of our Lord and Savior on this Holy Day and for eternity! We all miss you, but we know you are at peace today in glory!

The Easter Flowers in the Sanctuary today were given and dedicated by you!
Take a moment to read the insert in today’s bulletin.

Special Thanks To:
