Please keep in mind the following:

- Being a camp counselor is a demanding job! You must love having kids follow you around 24 hours a day – there are no breaks at camp (while counselors do get some “off” time) you are on duty as a counselor the entire week 24 hours a day. Please consider this huge responsibility before applying to be a counselor.
- No staff member is ever a shoe-in to be hired for future years at Kamp. Each year your performance at Kamp is evaluated by senior staff and reported to the hiring committee for use in future hiring decisions. We look for a demonstrated Kamp attitude that is full of service and love for God and the kids.
- Please remember that we expect our Kamp counselors to represent the Kingdom of God at all times both while at Kamp and while not at Kamp. This means we will take factors besides your service at Kamp into consideration during hiring decisions. This might include, but is not limited to, the opinion of your references (if required or requested), your presence on social media, and your other interactions with Redeemer Lutheran Church.
