ORDER OF WORSHIP

January 28, 2024 – 9:00 a.m./10:30 a.m.

Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

Theme: The Tongue

As We Gather

The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit. Like a maniac shooting flaming arrows of death. Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a ruling rightly given. Through patience a ruler can be persuaded, and a gentle tongue can break a bone. A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. Sin is not ended by multiplying words, but the prudent hold their tongues. (Proverbs 18:21; 26:18; 25:11; 25:15; 15:1; 10:19)

Prayer Before Worship

Father, put a guard over my mouth when I am about to say something I should not say. Whether it is a word that is untrue, a word that is negative, a word that is critical, or a word that discourages, Lord, stop the words before they come out of my mouth. Close the door of my lips and prevent the words from leaving my mouth. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Opening Hymn 30

Oh, that I Had a Thousand Voices

1. Oh, that I had a thousand voices to praise my God with thousand tongues!
My heart, which in the Lord rejoices, would then proclaim in grateful songs
To all, wherever I might be, what great things God hath done for me.

2. O all ye pow'rs that He implanted, arise, and silence keep no more;
Put forth the strength that He hath granted, our noblest work is to adore.
O soul and body be ye meet with heart-felt praise your Lord to greet!
3. Ye forest leaves so green and tender, that dance for joy in summer air;
Ye meadow grasses, bright and slender; Ye flow'rs, so wondrous sweet and fair;
Ye live to show His praise alone, with me now make His glory known.

Order of Service

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Make haste, O God, to deliver me.

C: Make haste to help me, O Lord.

P: The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.

C: A broken and contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.
Glory be to the Father and to the + Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Children's Message

Old Testament Reading

Numbers 14:20-24, 36-37

(Spreading a false report)

The Lord replied, "I have forgiven them, as you asked. Nevertheless, as surely as I live and as surely as the glory of the Lord fills the whole earth, not one of those who saw my glory and the signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times — not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their ancestors. No one who has treated me with contempt will ever see it. But because my servant Caleb has a different spirit and follows me wholeheartedly, I will bring him into the land he went to, and his descendants will inherit it.” So the men Moses had sent to explore the land, who returned and made the whole community grumble against him by spreading a bad report about it —these men who were responsible for spreading the bad report about the land were struck down and died of a plague before the Lord.

Epistle Reading

James 3:1-12

(Taming the Tongue)

Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly. We all stumble in many ways. Anyone who is never at fault in what they say is perfect, able to keep their whole body in check. When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal. Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go. Likewise, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark. The tongue also is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole body, sets the whole course of one’s life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell. All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and sea creatures are being tamed and have been tamed by mankind, but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse human beings, who have been made in God’s likeness. Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this should not be. Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring? My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

Response: Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 15:1-20

(That which defiles)

Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don’t wash their hands before they eat!” Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’ and ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother is to be put to death.’ But you say that if anyone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’ they are not to ‘honor their father or mother’ with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you: “ ‘These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are merely human rules.’” Jesus called the crowd to him and said, “Listen and understand. What goes into someone’s mouth does not defile them, but what comes out of their mouth, that is what defiles them.” Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?” He replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots. Leave them; they are blind guides. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.” Peter said, “Explain the parable to us.” “Are you still so dull?” Jesus asked them. “Don’t you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body? But the things that come out of a person’s mouth come from the heart, and these defile them. For out of the heart come evil thoughts — murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander. These are what defile a person; but eating with unwashed hands does not defile them.”

Response: Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Sermon Hymn 15

From All that Dwell Below the Skies

1. From all that dwell below the skies let the Creator’s praise arise;
Alleluia! Alleluia! Let the Redeemer’s name be sung
Thro’ ev’ry land, by ev’ry tongue. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
2. Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord; eternal truth attends Thy Word:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
Till suns shall rise and set no more. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Offertory

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from Thy presence,
And take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.
Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation;
And uphold me with Thy free spirit. Amen.

Gathering of Offerings

At this time, please take a moment to record your attendance here with us today. There are two simple ways to do this:

1. Scan the QR code on the front page of the announcements and fill out the online attendance form.
2. Use the worship card found in your pew. You may drop it in the offering plate or simply leave it in your pew after you fill it out.

This is also an opportune time for personal prayer and meditation. For help, see the prayers beginning on page 102 of the pew hymnal and the Psalms beginning on page 123.

Doxology

Tune: hymn 15

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below; Hallelujah, hallelujah,
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost!
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah,
Hallelujah, hallelujah.

Prayer of the Church

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Benediction and Response: Amen, Amen, Amen

Closing Hymn 23

Hallelujah! Let Praises Ring

(favorite hymn of Cathy Hansen and David Pflieger)

1. Hallelujah! Let praises ring! To God the Father let us bring
Our songs of adoration. To Him thro' everlasting days
Be worship, honor, pow'r, and praise, whose hand sustains creation.
Singing, ringing: Holy, holy, God is holy -
Spread the story of our God, the Lord of Glory.
2. Hallelujah! Let praises ring! Unto the Lamb of God we sing,
In whom we are elected. He bo't His Church with His own blood,
He cleansed her in that blessed flood, and as His Bride selected.

Holy, holy is our union and communion.

His befriending gives us joy and peace unending.

3. Hallelujah! Let praises ring! Unto the Holy Ghost we sing,
For our regeneration. The saving faith in us He wrought
And us unto the Bridegroom bro't, made us His chosen nation.
Glory! Glory! Joy eternal, bliss supernal;
There is manna and an endless, glad hosanna.

while words are ghosts that haunt me.*

*Slant and curved the word-swords fall,
it pierces and sticks inside me.*

*Bats and bricks may ache through bones,
but words can mortify me.*

*Pain from words has left its scar

*Cuts and bruises have not healed,

Mission Trip to Jamaica: March 23 – March 29 2024!

Have you heard!? The high school mission team is traveling to Jamaica to serve over spring break (March 23-29, 2024). We would love for your student to sign up! The application is outside Eric and Gia's office. If you're even slightly interested, please don't hesitate to reach out to them with any questions. Applications are due TODAY, Sunday, January 28th.

Women's Book Group: Due to our unpredictable (and most of the time, lovely) Michigan weather we are combining our Jan. and Feb. book group meetings to review West with Giraffes by Lynda Rutledge and Modoc: The True Story of the Greatest Elephant that Ever Lived by Ralph Helfer. We will discuss both at our Tuesday, Feb. 27 meeting at 7:30pm in the Town Square by the cozy fireplace. In the meantime, cozy up with our March read Women of the Bible Speak by Shannon Bream. No better place to go than into a good book!!

Our Woman of the Year, Kathy Eley, will be honored at a luncheon on Tuesday, March 19 in Clinton Township, sponsored by The Council of Lutheran Women. If you wish to attend tickets are $38.00 (cash or payable to Redeemer) and must be ordered before February 1. Tables are limited to 10 people so please text, email or call Kitty to save your spot. We do not purchase extra tickets so please let me know quickly if you will be joining us to honor Kathy and the other women from the metro Detroit area.

Women's Ministry: BUNCO! Yes, you read that right! BUNCO is coming to Redeemer on Friday, February 9 at 6:00pm for appetizers, dessert and the game everybody can play that requires no skill – just luck! And because we are reading a story for book group about elephants, we would like you to bring a white one (a white elephant gift, that is.) Wrap it and we will fight over it! Bunco Night is just for fun and we hope you will take us up on the invitation. Signup on the Town Square bulletin board and bring one of the suggested items. Jan Kanka will be your hostess and she really wants you to come!
