

Books of the Bible Tests

Old Testament Books Test – Wednesday, October 28th

New Testament Books Test – Wednesday, December 2nd

You need to memorize the books of the Bible in order. Do your very, very best with spelling – but spelling technically doesn't count. As long as I can distinguish the book of the Bible that is written on your tests, then it will be marked "correct".

We will be practicing the books of the Bible a little bit during Wednesday evenings, BUT you will still need to study at home. I will email your parents the links to some songs that might help you memorize the order 😊

Please feel free to contact Laura if you have any questions or need help!
